

- Energy Engineer, New York City Office
- Full-Time Position
- Start Date: As soon as possible

Salary: Based on Experience

Role: Energy Engineer

- Perform all aspects of the energy audit: proposals, client kick-offs, data collection, site visits, ECM identification, calculations, final report writing
- Report to Director of Engineering and Managing Director weekly
- Potentially manage internal or external team of energy managers
- Assist our LEED project managers with energy LEED credits, field work, and documentation
- Minimal travel – outside of New York City area up to 10 times a year

Experience / Skill Requirements

- BS Mechanical Engineering
- BSME preferred, but will consider other Engineering degrees
- 3-5 years of relevant experience in a similar industry
- Minimum 1 year Energy Audit experience in buildings over 50,000sf
- Experience with major HVAC equipment and BMS/EMS systems
- A major plus if you have one or more of the following: Professional engineering license, Certified Energy Manager, Certified Energy Auditor
- Energy Modeling experience preferred
- Excellent writing skills required (writing samples required)
- Excellent communication and time management skills
- Comfortable in a fast-paced environment
- Interested in becoming part of the fast growing Green Building Industry at one of New York City's premier sustainability and energy efficiency companies

Benefits:

- Medical, Dental and Vision benefits
- 401k
- Performance Bonus Program

Contact:

If interested, please email a cover letter and resume to Chris Cayten (ccayten@codegreensolutions.com)