CodeGreen Solutions named a 2018 ENERGY STAR® Partner of the Year for third year in a row

CodeGreen Solutions, a leading energy efficiency and sustainability consulting firm based in New York City has been awarded the Energy Star Partner of the Year by the U.S. EPA for the third year in a row, placing the firm in the category of Sustained Excellence alongside other leaders in the energy efficiency industry. CodeGreen's accomplishments will be recognized by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Department of Energy at a ceremony in Washington, D.C. on April 11, 2019.

"We are very proud and excited to win this prestigious award for the third year in a row. The CodeGreen team works tirelessly to help our clients improve the sustainability and energy efficiency of buildings across the country, and the ENERGY STAR program forms the foundation of these efforts," said CodeGreen Principal Christopher Cayten.

"I applaud the 2019 ENERGY STAR Award Winners," said EPA Assistant Administrator for Air and Radiation Bill Wehrum. "Their innovation and leadership enhance America's economic competitiveness. Reducing costly energy waste improves air quality and public health while protecting the environment."

The highest honor among ENERGY STAR Awards is the ENERGY STAR Partner of the Year—Sustained Excellence Award. EPA presents the Sustained Excellence Award to partners that have already received ENERGY STAR Partner of the Year recognition for a minimum of two consecutive years and have gone above and beyond the criteria needed to qualify for recognition.
